Malcolm X, Black Liberation, and the Road to Workers Power

By Jack Barnes
 Price: $20
 Coming March 2010 in Spanish

“ Don't start with Blacks as an oppressed nationality. Start with the vanguard place and weight of workers who are Black in broad proletarian-led social and political struggles in the United States. From the Civil War to today, the record is mind-boggling. It's the strength and resilience, not the oppression, that bowls you over.”—Jack Barnes

Malcolm X emerged from the the Black liberation struggle that opened in the mid-1950s as its outstanding single leader. He insisted that colossal movement was part of a worldwide clash “between those who want freedom, justice, and equality and those who want to continue the systems of exploitation.”

Drawing lessons from a century and a half of struggle, this book helps us understand why it is the revolutionary conquest of power by the working class that will make possible the final battle for Black freedom—and open the way to a world based not on exploitation, violence, and racism but human solidarity. A socialist world.

Includes four photo sections and over 130 photographs and drawings, author's introduction, index, glossary.

New from Cuba
The Inevitable Battle
 From the Bay of Pigs to Playa Girón

By Juan Carlos Rodríguez
 Published in Cuba by Editorial Capitán San Luis. Distributed by Pathfinder.
 Price: $20
 Also available in Spanish

The U.S.-led invasion of Cuba in April 1961 was defeated in 66 hours by militia battalions composed of worker and peasant volunteers, along with soldiers from the Cuban armed forces. Cuban historian Juan Carlos Rodríguez explains that the human material available to Washington could not match the courage and determination of a people fighting to defend what they had gained through the continent's first socialist revolution.

Lenin's Final Fight and La última lucha de Lenin

By V.I. Lenin
 Price: $20

As capitalism in the twenty-first century enters its deepest economic and social crisis since the decades spanning the first and second imperialist world wars, programmatic and strategic matters in dispute in the communist workers movement in the early 1920s once again weigh heavily in prospects for the working class worldwide to advance along its historic line of march toward the conquest of power.

In 1922 and 1923, V.I. Lenin, central leader of the world's first socialist revolution, waged what was to be his last political battle. At stake was whether that revolution would remain on the proletarian course that had brought workers and peasants in the former tsarist empire to power in October 1917—and laid the foundations for a truly worldwide revolutionary movement of toilers organizing to emulate the Bolsheviks' example.

Lenin's Final Fight brings together, for the first time, the reports, articles, and letters through which Lenin waged this political battle. Many were suppressed for decades, and some have never before appeared in English. Second edition includes new introduction by Jack Barnes and Steve Clark.

Is Socialist Revolution in the U.S. Possible? A Necessary Debate

By Mary-Alice Waters
 Price: $7
 Also available in: Spanish, French

In two talks, presented as part of a wide-ranging debate at the 2007 and 2008 Venezuela International Book Fairs, Mary-Alice Waters explains why a socialist revolution in the United States is possible. Revolutionary struggles by working people are inevitable. They will be initiated not by the toilers, but will be forced upon us by the crisis-driven assaults by the propertied classes on our conditions of life and labor. In growing solidarity and the emergence of a fighting vanguard of working people, the outlines of these coming class battles can be seen.

Our History Is Still Being Written The Story of Three Chinese-Cuban Generals in the Cuban Revolution

By Armando Choy, Gustavo Chui, Moisés Sío Wong, Mary-Alice Waters
Price: $20

Readers club price: $17
Also available in: Spanish, Chinese

A chapter in the chronicle of the Cuban Revolution, as told by those on the front lines of that ongoing epic. Armando Choy, Gustavo Chui, and Moisés Sío Wong talk about the historic place of Chinese immigration to Cuba, as well as more than five decades of revolutionary action and internationalism, from Cuba to Angola, Nicaragua, and Venezuela. Through their stories the social and political forces that gave birth to the Cuban nation and still shape our epoch unfold. We see how millions of ordinary men and women like them changed the course of history, becoming different human beings in the process.

Fighting Racism in World War II
From the pages of the Militant
Price: $25
Readers Club price:
$17.50

A week-by-week account from 1939 to 1945 of efforts to advance the Black rights struggle in face of patriotic appeals to postpone resistance to lynch-mob terror and racist discrimination until after U.S. "victory" in World War II. These struggles—of a piece with rising anti-imperialist battles in Africa, Asia, and the Americas—helped lay the basis for the mass civil rights movement in the postwar decades.
