

World Institute for Development Economics Research of the United Nations University (UNU-WIDER) is the first research and training centre of the United Nations University (UNU), established in Helsinki, Finland in 1984. UNU-WIDER undertakes applied research and policy analysis on global development and poverty issues.

Events	More...	News	More...	New Publications	More...
13 January 2010 UNU-WIDER & UNU-CRIS Joint Session on South-South Integration in a North-South Context at the 11th Annual Global Development Network Conference: Regional and Global Integration: Quo Vadis?		14 January 2010 - WIDER Working Papers The series amalgamates and replaces both the previous Discussion Paper and the Research Paper Series. Read more...		The Triple Crisis and the Global Aid Architecture 2010/01 Tony Addison, Channing Arndt, and Finn Tarp
19 January 2010 New Structural Economics and Development by Justin Lin, Chief Economist and Senior Vice President for Development Economics of the World Bank		16 December 2009 - Highlight from the WIDER Angle, December 2009. As world leaders gathered in Copenhagen for the fifteenth United Nations Climate Change Conference (COP15). Read more...		Special Issue: Entrepreneurship, Developing Countries and Development Economics Guest Edited by Wim Naudé
28 January 2010 Live, Interactive Webcast: Global Crisis, More Than Just Economics				Vulnerability in Developing Countries Edited by Wim Naudé, Amelia U. Santos-Paulino and Mark McGillivray	