Belén Villalonga is an Associate Professor in the Finance Unit at the Harvard Business School, where she has been on the faculty since 2001. Professor Villalonga’s teaching and research and interests lie at the intersection of family business, finance, strategy, and governance. She has developed and teaches the MBA elective course Growing, Financing, and Managing Family and Closely Held Firms. She also teaches in two related executive education programs, Families in Business and Strategic Finance for Smaller Businesses, as well as in the doctoral course Management and Markets. In 2010 she received the Harvard Business School Wyss Award for excellence in mentoring doctoral students.
