

Media Access to Transcripts and Pleadings and ‘Open Justice’: A Case Study

Patrick Keyzer,
University of Technology Sydney

ABSTRACT

This paper explores the rules that apply to media access to transcripts and pleadings in New South Wales and the concept of ‘open justice’. If the principle of open justice is to be entrenched by judicial exegesis rather than constitutional referendum — which is probably much more