Abstract:

The dispositions of the Children Rights Convention regard the rights of therefugee children and of those who ask for asylum, protection, humanitarianassistance, including finding family members or the main person that was taken care prior, on legal or common basis. In Law no. 122/2006, regarding the asylum in Romania, the underageunattended person represents:- the underage, foreign or stateless, that has arrived in Romania, unattendedby parents or any legal representative or that is not under the care of other person, according to the law;- the underage that is let unattended after entering the Romanian territory. The foreigners that request a form of protection must be photographed andfinger printed. In the case of underage that have not reached the age of 14 thefinger printing is not needed. The collected finger prints will be transmitted and stocked on paper in theRomanian Immigration Bureau archives and also in electronic format in the AFISnational data base. Also, the finger prints of all the asylum requestors aretransmitted and stocked in the European data base EURODAC1. The interview for determining the kind of protection consists in an audienceof the asylum requestor, made by a Romanian Immigration Bureau official .If the requestor is underage, the interview takes place in the presence of thelegal representatives, that must inform them in reference with the purpose, thepossible consequences of the personal interview and must prepare them for it.
