May 25, 2007

Dear Sir or Madam,

On behalf of China Law Society, I sincerely invite you and a delegation from your organization to attend the second Regional Forum on Legal Cooperation to be held from August 1 to 5, 2007 in Xi'an, Shaanxi Province, China. This Forum is expected to enjoy participation of about 100 delegates including judicial officials, lawyers, law experts and scholars and entrepreneurs from Azerbaijan, Belarus, Bulgaria, China, Czech, Hungary, India, Kyrgyz, Mongolia, Pakistan, Poland, Russia, Tajikistan and Uzbekistan, following the spirit of cooperation, development and Win-Win, to discuss legal issues of common interest in this area.

In August, 2006, more than 300 delegates from Azerbaijan, Belarus, China, India, Kyrgyz, Mongolia, Pakistan, Russia, Tajikistan and Uzbekistan participated in the first Regional Forum on Legal Cooperation in Urumqi, Xinjiang Autonomous Region, China. During the Forum, focusing on "Strengthen Legal Exchange and Promote Regional Economic Cooperation", the delegates deeply explored and reached broad consensus on the economic and social opportunities and challenges of this region and they unanimously agreed that it was of great significance to strengthen the dialogue, exchange and cooperation among the legal circles of the countries in this region so as to promote the mutual understanding and d trust among the countries, to ensure the smooth flow of trading and investment and to promote the comprehensive stability, prosperity and development of this region. On the closing ceremony of the first Forum, 42 organizations from the above countries became the founding member of the Forum and approved and signed the Urumqi Declaration, showing that we legal circles of this region would try our best to enhance the peace, stability, development, prosperity and harmony of this region.

In order to continuously further the friendship and understanding among the legal circles of this region, to consolidate the achievements of the first Forum and to fulfill the Urumqi Declaration, China Law Society would like to hold the second Regional Forum on Legal Cooperation from August 1 to 5, 2007, in Xi'an, Shaanxi Province, China.

The theme of the second Forum is “Strengthen Legal Cooperation and Promote Harmonious Development of the European-Asian Region” .

The proposed topics include:

- 1 The Role of Law in the Process of Promoting Harmonious Development of this Region
- 2 The Legal Protection of Foreigners of the Host Country
- 3 Comparative Study of Investment Laws

For other topics, it is open to your suggestions.

In addition to the workshops on above topics, there are various programs available to all participants, such as Opening and Closing Ceremonies, Seminars, visiting joint ventures, sightseeing in Xi'an and visiting the world famous Emperor Qin's Terra-cotta Warriors.

The second Forum will still be sponsored by China Law S ociety and organized by Law Society of Shaanxi Province and China Legal Exchange Center, and widely supported by the China central government, local government and related institutions and authorities.

The second Forum is scheduled for five days from August 1 to 5, 2007 (Registration is on August 1, 2007). The registration fee is US$100 for each delegate, which includes the picking-up and seeing-off services at the airport, conference documents, working meals, welcome and farewell banquets, visiting the Emperor Qin's Terro-cotta Warriors and transportation from and to the conference venue during the Forum. However, the accommodation shall be undertaken by delegates themselves. As a Distinguished Guest, such as President of nation-wide legal organization, President of Supreme Court, Attorney-General or Chief Prosecutor, Minister of Justice, the registration fee as well as the accommodation in Xi'an will be borne by China Law Society.

We are trying our best to make the second Forum an academic platform for experts and scholars to exchange ideas, a ground for entrepreneurs to catch commercial opportunities and a bridge for participants to make friends.

We are looking forward to welcoming you in Xi'an, Shaanxi.

Best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Liu Yang

Executive Vice President
