Labor and the Supreme Court: significant issues of 1991-92

Craig Hukill

Attorney, Office of the Solicitor, U.S. Department of Labor

Veteran's rights to reemployment, union organizing practices, pension entitlements, and the taxability of backpay recovered in damage suits are among the labor-related issues the Supreme Court will hear in the coming term. This article summarizes labor and employment cases facing the Supreme Court, covering traditional labor relations, pensions and benefits, employment discrimination, and public-sector employment.
