Description of Rotational Molecular Spectra by the Two-Parameter Universal Equation

ZENG Guo-Mo

School of Physics and State Key Laboratory of Theoretical and Computational Chemistry, Jilin University, Changchun 130023, China
(Received: 2001-12-6; Revised:)

Abstract: The n-power two-parameter universal equation for rotational spectra which we deduced recently is applied to the description of the rotational bands of several diatomic and tetra-atomic molecules. Excellent agreement with experimental data can be obtained with small n values. The relation between our equation and the famous Dunham formula is discussed.

[Full text: PDF]

Close