

The following is a transcript of the audio recording of the meeting between the FBI and the representative of the Chinese government regarding the investigation of the Chinese spy ring in the United States. The transcript has been redacted to protect sensitive information.