

Iowa State University school superintendent program gets unconditional approval from state board

http://www.istate.edu 2017-01-25

【导语】Iowa State University

【导语】Iowa State University's school superintendent preparation program was the only one in the state to receive unconditional approval through 2011 from the Iowa State Board of Education earlier this month. The unconditional approval for a period of four years indicates that the ISB program met or exceeded all of the board's new guidelines for such programs, which were announced last December.

【导语】Iowa State University

【导语】Iowa State University's school superintendent preparation program was the only one in the state to receive unconditional approval through 2011 from the Iowa State Board of Education earlier this month. The unconditional approval for a period of four years indicates that the ISB program met or exceeded all of the board's new guidelines for such programs, which were announced last December.

【导语】Iowa State University

【导语】Iowa State University's school superintendent preparation program was the only one in the state to receive unconditional approval through 2011 from the Iowa State Board of Education earlier this month. The unconditional approval for a period of four years indicates that the ISB program met or exceeded all of the board's new guidelines for such programs, which were announced last December.

【导语】Iowa State University

【导语】Iowa State University's school superintendent preparation program was the only one in the state to receive unconditional approval through 2011 from the Iowa State Board of Education earlier this month. The unconditional approval for a period of four years indicates that the ISB program met or exceeded all of the board's new guidelines for such programs, which were announced last December.

