

Turkish Journal of Botany

Turkish Journal

Two New Records of Astragalus Species of the Sections Anthylloidei DC. and Dissitiflori DC. from Iran

of

Farrokh GHAREMANINEJAD

Botany

Dept. of Biology, Faculty of Science, Teacher Training University of Tehran (University of Tarbiat-Moallem), 49 Dr. Mofatteh Avenue, 15614
Tehran, IRAN
Email: ghahremaninejad@saba.tmu.ac.ir

 Keywords
 Authors

Abstract: Astragalus crassispinus Bunge and Astragalus nigrolineatus Sirj. & Rech.f. are new records from Iran. They belong to the sections Anthylloidei DC. and Dissitiflori DC. These species were endemic to Afghanistan.

Key Words: Anthylloidei, Astragalus, A. crassispinus, A. nigrolineatus, Cercidothrix, Dissitiflori, Fabaceae, Iran

Turk. J. Bot., 29, (2005), 399-402.

Full text: pdf

Other articles published in the same issue: Turk. J. Bot. vol.29.iss.5.

bot@tubitak.gov.tr

Scientific Journals Home Page