

Turkish Journal of Zoology

Turkish Journal

of

Zoology

Herpetofauna of the Eastern Region of the Amanos Mountains (Nur)

Üsmail Hakkı UĞURTAŞ, Hikmet Sami YILDIRIMHAN

Uludağ University, Science and Arts Faculty, Biology Department Bursa - TURKEY

Mehmet ÖZ

Akdeniz University, Science and Arts Faculty, Biology Department, Antalya - TURKEY

 Keywords
Authors

Abstract: In this study, Herpetofauna of the eastern region of the Amanos mountains in Turkey was investigated. A total of 319 samples were collected and 27 species from 17 amphibian and reptile families were described. Two of these species are urodeles, three are anurans, two are turtles, eleven are lizards and eight are snakes.

Key Words: Herpetofauna, East of Amanos Mountains

zool@tubitak.gov.tr

Turk. J. Zool., 24, (2000), 257-262.

Full text: pdf

Other articles published in the same issue: Turk. J. Zool., vol.24, iss.3.

[Scientific Journals Home
Page](#)