

Turkish Journal of Zoology

Turkish Journal

of

Zoology

Short Term Secondary Production and Population Dynamics of Crustacea and Rotifera in Three Different Biotopes of Neusiedler See (Austria)

Nuray EMİR AKBULUT

H. U. Faculty of Science Dept. Biology 06532 Beytepe, Ankara-TURKEY

Abstract: This paper describes the population dynamic parameters of the two cructaceans Diaphanosoma mongolianum, Arctodiaptomus spinosus and four rotifer species which are Filinia longiseta, Hexartra mira, Brachionus angularis and Polyartha vulgaris.

Key Words: Biomass, Secondary production, Cladocera, Copepoda, Rotifera.

 Keywords
Authors

Turk. J. Zool., 24, (2000), 279-290.

Full text: pdf

Other articles published in the same issue: Turk. J. Zool.,vol.24,iss.3.

zool@tubitak.gov.tr

Scientific Journals Home
Page