Slovak agriculture heading for the membership

Agric. Econ. – Czech, 49 (2) 127

The paper analyses the economic policy gap between the agriculture of Slovakia and the EU member states from the perspective of the future of this country to the Union. As a result of the deterioration of terms of trade during the transition period creates serious problems for the accession negotiations because this fact seems to lead equitable implementation of member countries after the E enlargement of the Union. T arguing, on the basis of inco simulation, that that the Cor proposal on reduced direct p the newly admitted countries case of Slovakia, generate a improvement of the sectoral if they are topped by rural de measures.
