ABOUT WOC2014

HOTELS & TOURS

Register for the 2014 World Ophthalmology Congress® (WOC) of the International Council of Ophthalmology (ICO) to be part of a truly memorable and dynamic educational event.

Over five intensive days you'll learn from experts, participate in world-class sessions, and connect with colleagues from all over the world.

WOC2014 Highlights Include:

- Subspecialty Day
 - Comprehensive, day-long sessions on cataract, glaucoma, oculoplasty, pediatric ophthalmology, retina, and refractive surgery.
- WOC Review Day
 - Featuring authors from the Asia-Pacific Journal of Ophthalmology, four back-to-back sessions summarize progress and highlights of the past year in primary subspecialties.

- Ophthalmic Premier League (OPL)
 - Teams of top international ophthalmologists present their most challenging cases while poking fun at opposing team members.
- ICO World Ophthalmology Quiz
 - In an exciting two-part session, teams of residents and fellows compete by answering questions based on photo, video, and sound clues covering the entire spectrum of ophthalmology.
- World Ophthalmic Education Colloquium (WOEC)
 - Designed for a diverse audience, this series of symposia and workshops spotlight a variety of educational techniques. A workshop on lecture and presentation skills will be offered in both English and Japanese.
- World Forum for Sight Lectures
 - A two-day series addresses initiatives to enhance eye care and preserve and protect vision.
- Special Interest Groups
 - Sessions on genetics, glaucoma, and cornea use an interactive approach to cover a diverse array of topics.
- Women In Ophthalmology Presentation of Managing Complications and Complex Cataracts
 - This program covers how to identify high risk cataract patients and manage their cataract surgery.
- Education Without Borders - A Global Session for Young Ophthalmologists
 - Offering an engaging platform for young ophthalmologists to discuss global educational issues and opportunities.
- And much more.

The invited scientific program is now available online and detailed information about topics, speakers, dates, times, and locations can be found at:

ww4.aievolution.com/ico1401/.

Register now to confirm your participation in this important event. Registration fees go up on October 18.

The WOC2014 is sponsored by the International Council of Ophthalmology, hosted by the Japanese Ophthalmological Society (JOS) and co-hosted by the Asia-Pacific Academy of Ophthalmology (APAO).

We look forward to seeing you in Tokyo April 2-6, 2014.

Kind regards,

Tetsuro Oshika, MD, Ph.D.
President, WOC2014
