New economy and manager behaviour changes

Agric. Econ. – Czech, 50 (2004): 9-12

The article reflects recent developments in factors affecting business behaviour both externally and internally. Derived from these changes, business managers' competences are assessed in accordance with changing requirements on managers' behaviour. Competences are then described in terms of specific and technical competences.

Keywords:

competence, manager, internal and external environment, new economy
