

MY CIMA -

Events Innovation Study with us Students Members Employers Educators Professionalism Home

About us

Home Innovation Reports Sustainability and ethics Embedding ethical values in the corporate culture: Zambia

Embedding ethical values in the corporate culture: Zambia

This paper summarises the discussions from a joint roundtable with the Institute of Directors Zambia, held in August at the 2013 Annual Business Conference in Livingstone.

A group of professional accountants discussed both ethical challenges that can be faced in corporate life as well as giving recommendations on how best to safeguard against risk and how to strengthen a culture of integrity.

Download

Download a PDF version (2 MB).

Find out more

- · Read the related report 'Acting under pressure'
- Read the related report 'Embedding ethical values in the corporate culture: Malaysia'
- See the CIMA ethics pages

Sustainability and ethics

UK Bribery Act: seminar, survey and guidance

Incorporating ethics into strategy

Westpac⁷ s squashed tomato strategy

Accounting for climate change

Emissions trading and the management accountant

OFR and sustainability roundtable

Managing responsible business

Green Veneer or Green Revolution?

Climate change: the role of the finance professional

Climate change calls for strategic change

Accounting for sustainable development performance

Accounting for ethical, social, environmental and economic issues

Case studies

Sustainability in emerging markets: lessons from South Africa

Tomorrow s Value

Evolution of corporate sustainability practices

Tomorrow s balance sheet

The Prince s accounting for sustainability project

Guide and commentary on the UK's CRC energy efficiency scheme

Apocalypse H20: accounting for the true value of water

SMEs set their sights on sustainability

Sustainability performance management: how CFOs can unlock value

Sustainability and the role of the management accountant

Strategic responses to global climate change: a UK analysis

Building world class businesses for the long term: challenges and opportunities

Management control for sustainability strategy

Acting under pressure _ how management accountants manage ethical issues

Fact or fiction? The independent business partner

Corporate social responsibility and innovation in management accounting

Embedding ethical values into the corporate culture

Understanding reputational risk - the costs of 'act now, worry later'

Embedding ethical values in the corporate culture: Zambia

Find us on

cima.contact@cimaglobal.com

Find your local CIMA office

© CIMA FAQs Contact us Terms & conditions Privacy policy Cookie policy Sitemap Accessibility

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT BUSINESS MANAGEMENT FORECASTING STRATEGIC INSIGHT ACCOUNTING APPRAISAL AND MANAGEMENT CHANGE MANAGEMENT BUDGETING ENTERPRISE GOVERNANCE RISK
PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT REPORTING DECISION MAKING TRANSACTION PROCESSING ETHICS PROJECT MANAGEMENT PARTNERSHIP MANAGEMENT STRATEGY SYSTEMS AND PROCEDURES CORPORATE FINANCE