

PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Department Navigation

- prospective students
- current students
- community programs
- alumni
- people

Maxwell / Public Affairs

Welcome to The Policy Studies Major

The Right Tools for the Real World

Our undergraduate program is offered by The Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs (the #1 rated public affairs school in the USA) and the College of Arts and Sciences.

The major is completed through coursework from several academic departments. You will acquire skills in report writing, problem-solving, information gathering, computer applications, quantitative analysis, and working in teams as you study major public policy issues. Not only is the program both hands-on and interdisciplinary, but it also offers a wide variety of electives to choose from.

Click here to read an article about doing good in the Policy Studies major.

See what alumni have said about policy studies.

Click here to learn about PAF 101, the gateway course to the policy studies major.

Disclaimer: The outcomes described in these materials illustrate past student achievements and are not guaranteed for current and future students.

Celebrating Maxwell's
90th

In conjunction with the celebration of the 90th anniversary of the Maxwell School, Public Affairs is holding A Sense of Shared Mission: The Maxwell School/Teach for America Connection on Friday, October 10th at 12:45pm.

Undergraduates
Building Professional Skills
Through Community Service and Research"

Follow Maxwell at:

Department of Public Affairs | Maxwell School | Syracuse University | 102 Maxwell Hall | Syracuse, NY 13244-1090 | 315.443.2348 | Fax: 315.443.5069