Work and health in logistics and the transport sector | Part 1: Trends and Perspectives

Dr Elke Schneider (EU-OSHA) and Jochen Lau (German transport safety council DVR) - German and English

This international event focuses on the design of safe and healthy working conditions for employees in logistics and transportation, while ensuring the competitiveness of companies.

Speakers present new challenges faced in the European transportation sector and discuss innovative approaches and solutions. The event is divided in four sessions: "The European perspective", "Changing working conditions in transport and logistics", "Workplace risk assessment" and "Good practices and innovative approaches".

Presentation of the winners of the competition „On the road – but safely!“, focusing on occupational traffic safety.

Work Hard – Play Hard: Screening and discussion “Work organisation and psychosocial risks”

Chaired by Dr Christa Sedlatschek (Director EU-OSHA) and moderated by Reinhard Lenz (organiser of the Arts and Theatre festival A+A 2013) - German

As part of the "Arts and Theatre festival A+A 2013" EU-OSHA is hosting a screening session of Work Hard – Play Hard and discussion on work organisation and psychosocial risks.

The documentary film was directed by Carmen Losmann and won the EU-OSHA Healthy Workplaces Film Award in 2011.

The film encourages the audience to question our relentless pursuit of the Holy Grail - the motivation, the journey and the destination of maximum productivity and efficiency at all costs.

Producer Eric Winker participates in the discussion.

Nothing speaks louder than a photograph that stirs the imagination, evokes emotions and engages both the photographer and the viewer.

The photo competition raises awareness of workplace safety and health across Europe and supports EU-OSHA's mission to make Europe's workplaces safer, healthier and more productive.
